New England Roofing Company,

MANUFACTURERS OF

WARRENS' IMPROVED

Fire and Water Proof Composition Roofs,

Office——7 Liberty Square, Boston.

THIS Company would respectfully solicit the attention of Builders, Architects, Manufacturers, and the Public, to this much approved system of Roofing, which has been very generally adopted in the cities of Buffalo, Cincinnati, Chicago, and St. Louis, and within the past year in Boston and vicinity, where it has given entire satisfaction. It is rapidly superseding the use of all other kinds of Roof, and is confidently offered to the Public, as a mode of Roofing unobjectionable in every important particular.

The materials employed are none of them subject to corrosion or rust, like the metals, nor will they expand and contract with the changes of temperature, like tin and iron, nor shrink in dry weather, and swell in damp, like shingles, and other wood covers.

It combines in a greater degree than any other Fire Proof Roofing in use, the valuable requisites of cheapness, durability, and security against both Fire and Water.

The Roofs required no the inclination of not more than one inch to the foot, leaving it a good foundation for a promenade for drying purposes, and is of particular advantage to adjoining buildings in the event of Fire.

They are afforded at a much less price than any other Fire Proof Roof. The amount of material saved, and which would be used (by the old method) in raising the walls, and framing a steep Roof, still further reduces the cost of the building.

Another advantage gained, is the securing of rooms in the Upper Story, of the same dimensions and quite as commodious, as those in the lower part of the building. The expense of a three Story building, with this improvement, not being greater than that of a building of two stories with the pitched roof. There is no further saving in the cost of gutters.

These roofs are not affected by the use of machinery—like those of Tin or Slate.

The Composition is so prepared that it is not affected by the extremes of heat or cold.

In case of injury from any cause whatever, no roof is so easily or quickly repaired.

SMOOTHING IRONS!

MANY important improvements have been made since the beginning of the present century, relieving and facilitating the labor of men by machinery and other useful implements; but female labor has been nearly neglected until the introduction of the Patent Self Heating Smoothing Iron, which will relieve them, in a very great degree, from the expensive and fatiguing labor of Ironing. Besides being a great saving of time and expense. This Iron combines economy, convenience, saving of labor, and despatch—one cent's worth of dry charcoal supplies fuel for a whole day's ironing. Hard wood, coal, or charcoal will answer the same purpose. It can be used in any room or in the open air. Hatters' and Tailors' Irons are constructed upon the same principle, and possess equal superiority.

Republicanism in Ohio.

The following article, which we cut from the Cincinnati Gazette of the 24th inst., we find for the most part, apply exceedingly well to the latitude of Maine. The bankers of this State are pursuing a very similar policy to that which they seem to have adopted in Ohio, in their attempts to weaken the Republican organization—and probably with quite as little effect. With no platform of affirmative principles to stand upon themselves—or which they dare to stand upon openly—they wage a battle merely of expedients to everything which may have been done or declare by the Republican party. They also, as in Maine, try to make some capital out of a great lot holy horror of "secret political organizations"—which and heroics would be wonderfully lessened could they use such amounts for their own political salvation,—as well demonstrated in the few northern localities where the Know Nothing Councils have been made subservient to the pro slavery and liquor interests.

But we will give the article from the Gazette without further comment. It will show that the Republican spirit is good in Ohio:

The effort of the Ohio Statesman and other papers of that stamp, to create the jealousy of men who will meet together in Columbus on the 13th day of July next, and so prevent them from acting in harmony in the coming State canvass, are destined, we hope, to meet with utter discomfiture. The extracts from Ohio papers, which we publish on our first page this morning, show the prevalence of the right spirit in this state.

The leaders of the Democratic party are evidently alarmed. The work has gone so far they think their cause desperate, they balk at nothing which promises to retrieve their sinking fortunes. Recent recollections of the convention of last year are too fresh to permit them to sit down quietly and see the success of the legitimate successor. They know too well that their complete and signal defeat will follow that upon its harmonious and judicious action.

Divisions must be sown in the ranks of the Republicans at every hazard. If this fails, all is lost. The "party" falls into as inglorious a minority as it was in last year. * * *

But, we side in this corruption merely to put our friends on their guard against the devices of men who have corrupted every government they have got into control of. There in Germany arts may deceive some of the elect, and draw them into hostility with those who are laboring to effect the same end. The enemy are tireless and untiring, and if they can breed distrust where confidence should flourish, they may succeed in sowing dissensions which shall result in the election of the ticket nominated by the English at January Convention. Every Republican should remember that the democratic leaders are only laboring to elect their ticket, how much soever they may appear to be supporting his principles. They hate Know Nothingism only because they have not been able to use it.

They would be very glad to get Know Nothingism and Freesoilerism by the ears, and while they are fighting, quietly slip back into the place where they have been able to do so much to destroy the prosperity of the State. We are curious to know whether Know Nothings, and Freesoilers, and Whigs—for they also are invited to this entertainment—are about to fall into the trap which has been set to secure their destruction. The extracts we have referred to, show there is a large number at least who do not intend to be made pawns of Democratic tricksters. There are a few, however, who are blind as moles. The number is not large, but they are capable of doing mischief, and some of them are doubtless bent upon doing all they can.

We, however, have no fears of the result.—There was much fear and trembling before the meeting of the last convention of all politicians whose chief aim is doubtless, but the right spirit was abroad, and the name of the Convention of 1854 was a triumphant victory, such as our political history has not known before. We look forward hopefully to a similar victory which we believe is to follow the liberal action of the next Republican State Convention. The same spirit of conciliation, the same mutual concessions, that characterized the last convention, will be present, we think, on the 13th of July next, if not, the spoilsmen in this State will be overthrown more signally next fall than they were last.

Let all good Republicans labor until the convention meets as earnestly to fill it with conciliation and harmony as the Democrats are laboring to fill it with dissension and discord, and all will be well.

Mr Hart.—The Bangor Light Infantry, Captain John L. Hodsdon, were on the parade in full ranks, yesterday afternoon, and made a fine soldierlike appearance.

The Brewer Artillery, Captain Higgins, with great guns and little ones, also paraded a vast, and were received and escorted by the Light Infantry with due military honors. The corps is well equipped, and does honor to its drill.

The Parkville Outrage. Mr Park has commenced a suit against the rioters who threw the press of the Parkville Luminary into the Missouri river, and has employed Ion Edwards of St. Louis as counsel. He is a man of wealth, and is determined to push the perpetrators of the outrage to the wall, if there be justice or decency in the Courts of Missouri.

The steamer Admiral which was wrecked last season near Eastport, has been repaired in a most effective manner (including a watertight bulkhead, so that it will be difficult if not impossible to sink her,) at a total expense of $40,000. She will resume her trips between Boston and St. John in the early part of June.

The Machias Union says that Silman Dyer of Addison, mate of brig Susan Scull of Cherryfield, was knocked overboard and drowned, at Islands Hole, 21st—being struck by the main boom.

We have had but a small quantity of rain as yet this spring, and are beginning to feel the want of it. The sun set last evening with a dry look, notwithstanding there had been some cloudiness during the day.

A novel Offer. The Lincoln Democrat wants to know which Stephen G. Orr is the K. N. candidate for Governor."

Know-Nothing State Council.—The Grand State Council of the Know-Nothings has been in session in this city for two days past. The number of delegates was large, and the utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed, as we judge, from the act that the delegates all appeared very quite hampered whenever we met them.

The nomination of a candidate for Governor was undoubtedly referred to the full vote of the entire body of the order in their several Councils, the date of the vote to be communicated to the Grand Council, on the first of August.

Delegates were chosen to attend the National Convention to be held at Philadelphia, next month.

The following resolves were passed, after full discussion, with but three dissenting votes.

Resolved, That the new party to which we owe allegiance, is not based on one idea alone, but comprehends, and should always act in reference to every principle that will promote the moral and political welfare of a free people.

Resolved, That as the declaration of Independence the tone and tenor of the Constitution, the Ordinance of 1787, the words and deeds of the founders of this Republic, all indicate that they forefathers intended that Slavery should be accidental, not national—temporary, not permanent.

Resolved, That we solemnly protest against the repeal of the Missouri Compromise—the passage of the Nebraska barrens bill, and the hideous Slave Law, as violations of the rights of the Free States, and as tending to the destruction of the free institutions of our country.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to use the utmost exertions to free our National Territories from the curse of Slavery, and that we will never consent, under any circumstances, to the admission of another Slave State to this Union.

Resolved, That any attempt to commit our Order to the Free States, to the advancement of the interest of slavery—to ignore it as a political question—to attempt it as a side issue—to impose silence upon it, to suspect its devotedness, discourage its movements, discourage and receive, our strongest disapprobation and dissent.

Painful Accident.—A sad accident befell a son of Mrs Joshua Plummer, yesterday, by which it is feared he must lose one of his limbs. The lad—a fine boy of 13—was loading a pistol and after putting in his powder and shot, unhappily rested the muzzle upon his right knee, while putting on the cap. While in this position, the pistol was by some means discharged and the entire charge driven into the knee. The wound bled very profusely, but fortunately no artery was wounded, as otherwise he must have bled to death, being at some distance from home, and no physician in the vicinity. He was conveyed home, and immediately attended by Drs Rich and Laughton. There is a fair chance, we understand, that amputation may be avoided.

Sale of Property in the City.—R. Patten, Jun. auctr., sold the Brick stores on Broad street, yesterday, advertised by James I. Paine, administrator, as follows: No. 223, to Wm Emery, for $2500; Nos 111 and 115, to Enoch R. Lambert, for $1000 each, and No 119, to the same, for $2200—total, $5300.

Messrs. Pendleton & Ross are busily engaged in preparing and grading the ground, building the wharves, and getting the lumber ready for their marine railway, on the Brewer side. They have some thirty men at work, and will soon be ready for the machinery. Two tracks will be ready for use this season.

Lumbermen's Bank.—At a meeting on Monday last, the following officers were elected:

Thomas Lunt, President, James H. Chamberlain, Cashier, Thos. Robinson, Richard Tinker, ——— Emerson of Castine, and ——— M'Kenney of Boston, Directors.

A Probable Trick.—We understand that in Washington, N. B. quite a sensation was created on the 28th of April, by the following occurrences, at or near, and took place at our Ports.

The wife of Mr Benjamin Griffiths presented him with a couple of fine children, three cows with five calves, a couple of sows with thirty-five pigs, and three sheep with five lambs.—Who can tell a better story?

Irving's Life of Washington. The first volume of this desirable work has been received and is ready for delivery at Burton's. The work is issued on excellent paper and in beautiful print.

Constable Jacobson and another officer arrested two men on board a vessel yesterday, for fighting and another for interfering with the officers. Committed for examination.

About a say gallons of liquor were seized yesterday by the police, at the usual Boston's wharf—concealed in a variety of modes, and mostly directed to imaginary individuals.

Bishop of Portland.—Rev Dr Bacon, formerly of the Church of the Assumption, New York city, who was lately appointed to the new Roman Catholic Bishopric of Portland, has been presented with $500 by his former congregation as a parting gift.

Short Time.—On the Centreville racecourse, New York, last week, a trotting mare, called Flora Temple, went ten miles in 29 minutes and 44 seconds. She was backed to go 20 miles within an hour, but gave out at the twelfth mile.

Special Election in Ward Four.—Dr. N. L. Straw was elected, by unanimous vote, in Ward Four, on Wednesday forenoon, to fill the vacancy in the Common Council caused by the resignation of Mr. Finson.

The editor of the Journal says that he has made "strict inquiry" after Mrs. Patterson, but cannot learn that she is in town, as rumored.

To relieve some fears that the missing U. S. brig Porpoise may have been taken possession of by pirates, we publish the paragraph.

The Sebastopol Claims.—The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Commercial says:

Mr. Cole of the gentleman who has been known here as the agent of the French spoliation claims, has issued a circular to the claimants, advising that they try Congress again, with a view to a reference of the claims to the decision of a special tribunal—not the Court of Claims, which will have too much to do of a different business. If Congress will not do this, then they are to be requested to refer the claims specially to the Court already instituted, with instructions to give them a hearing, which Mr Cobster thinks will occupy two or three years.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF SCHOOL COMMITTEES.

Opinions of the Supreme Court in the Ellsworth School Case.

Two very important opinions of the Supreme Court, were delivered by Judge Appleton, in this city, on Monday, upon the "Ellsworth School Case"—involving the Bible question in our Common Schools, and the general rights and duties of School Committees, touching the internal regulation of our schools. A great deal of interest has been felt, in the cases referred to, and as principles of great importance are decided in these opinions, we have obtained copies from Judge Appleton for publication.

We give to day the first opinion, in the case of Lawrence Donahoe vs. John D. Richards et al., and shall to-morrow commence the publication of the second opinion, in the case of Bridget Donahoe (the daughter) vs. the same. This will probably occupy all the space we can spare in two or three numbers of our daily, but will appear complete in our next weekly.

HANCOCK COUNTY.

Appleton J. This suit is brought by the plaintiff father of Bridget Donahoe, against the defendants, the superintending school committee of the town of Ellsworth, for expelling her from school for a refusal to comply with the orders of her instructor to read in the common version of the Bible, designated in the report of the Protestant version—such reading being a part of the general course of instruction, and this version being directed to be used in such course. The question presented is whether the father, if such expulsion were wrongful, has thereby received any such injury as will entitle him to pecuniary compensation.

A minor child is subject to the commands of its father during minority, and the father is entitled to its services. Being entitled to such services, he can maintain an action for any wrongful act done to the child, by which it is disabled or made less able to render its due and accustomed service. The loss of service in such case is held to be the gist of the action. (Bellew Hollenbeck, 4 Barn. & Cress 660.) This principle, however, has been so far extended as to enable the father, when the child is too young to render any service, to recover in case of a bodily injury for the trouble and expense he may have incurred in the care and cure of such child. (Dennis vs. Clark, 2 Cushn. 347.) But in such case he cannot recover for the injury done to his parental feelings, or for the pain and suffering, or the circumstances of insult and aggravation with which the infliction of the injury may have been attended. (Flemington vs. Smithers, 2 C. and P. 292; Whitney vs. Hitchcock, 4 Denio, 461.) For injury to the person, the reputation, or the property, the suit must be in the name of the child and the damages be awarded in accordance with the circumstances which may have accompanied and aggravated the wrong.

In this case, there is no act done, by which the ability of the child to render service is diminished. The school is for her benefit and instruction. The education is given to her, or if wrongfully deprived thereof, the loss of such deprivation falls on her. The wrong committed, the injury done, is done to her alone—and if her rights have been violated, she alone is entitled to compensation.

The claim of a plaintiff under circumstances like those in the present case, have heretofore been examined and determined by courts entitled to the highest consideration, and with an entire uniformity of results. In Spear vs. Carter, 11 Pick. 224, it was held that the teacher of a town school was not liable to an action by a parent for refusing to instruct his children, there being no privity of contract between them. In Sherman vs. Charlestown, 8 Cush. 160, Shaw, C. J., referring to the case just cited remarks that the courts were of opinion, among other reasons, that the action was misconceived, "because the father is not the person injured and entitled to recover damages in his own right." In Stephenson vs. Hall and al., 14 Barb. 222, it was held that an action will not lie in behalf of a parent against the school committee of public schools for expelling and excluding the plaintiff's minor child from the common school, nor for damages sustained by the parent in bringing an appeal to the State Superintendent of Common Schools to get such child reinstated in the school. In this case, after a very careful and elaborate examination of all the authorities bearing upon the question, Allen J. says:—"I have searched in vain for a precedent sustaining an action of this character. I believe it is the first attempt of the kind that has been made in our courts of justice." In no case can a parent sustain an action for any wrong done to the child, unless he has it cause some direct pecuniary injury therefrom in consequence, or some loss of service or expenses necessarily consequent therupon. Upon principle, as well as authority, the action cannot be maintained.

Maine Law at the Eastward.

The first conviction under the new Maine Law in the western part of the county of Washington, took place before W. Wentworth, Esq. of Cherryfield, on Saturday last. The complaint was against a man of Harrington, for keeping rum in his house for sale. The house was searched, and about two gallons were found in a jug, covered up in a bed, which it was probably secreted on the spur of the moment. The man was absent. The wife did all she could to prevent the search. On being arraigned he plead guilty, and manifested contrition for his conduct. He had been in the habit of selling for some time, and was repeatedly warned that he would be prosecuted, if he did not desist. He seemed willing to go to jail, and although he lived about four miles on the way he took pains to come to Cherryfield to give himself up to the officer. His courage, however, did not hold out, and when he called to part with his wife and children, they all cried, and the officer says he left him at the jail in tears. "The way of the transgressor is hard." Some sympathy was felt for him, until the evils and sufferings he has occasioned, by rum-selling became more generally known.

The captain of a vessel, not belonging to the Narraguagus river, was complained of, and arrested to-day for a similar offence, and, as it is said, he must have been committed, if tried.—The fear of a jail induced him to escape, and he is now not to be found. While the officer was gone for witnesses, he slipped away, and was last seen going through the woods.

I have read the anti-Massachusetts Law speech, delivered by Rev. Mr Lovejoy in Faneuil Hall, Boston. The Cradle of Liberty was never less honored, nor rocked a baser, more deserving of Lynch or joy than this ill-formed, ill-looking and ill-meaning offspring of a perverted mind. It discovers no sense, no reason, no eloquence, no intelligence, and no expression of that Liberty which this Cradle was intended to cherish and support. Such a production can never afford any effectual aid to the enemies of humanity and justice, nor give any alarm to the friends of civil rights and freedom. It was an abortion, and the cause is manifest. No conception of the kind can ever grow to maturity.

Friend of Temperance.

Cherryfield, May 26, 1855.

The New York democrats are to have a great meeting at Tammany Hall, this evening, to rejoice over the election of Wise in Virginia.

A Suggestion about the War.—The Providence Journal makes a suggestion to the contending powers, which, if not practical, is at least heroic. It is, that the belligerents on each side, instead of sending armies against each other, shall each throw into the sea annually, during the contest, such sums as will probably cover the cost of hostilities, say forty or fifty millions sterling each; and let each party draw annually from all classes—from the peasantry in the proportion of the privates to an army, and from the nobility and gentry in proportion to the officers—as many men as will probably perish in the field, and tumble them into the sea with the treasure, or, if more agreeable, shoot them. Austria and Prussia might be appointed umpires, and the side which first gives out shall submit accordingly. Our Providence correspondent very advances several reasons why this would be a good policy.—Boston Journal.

The Arctic Expedition.—New York, May 29.—The expedition in search of Dr. Kane is now ready for sea. The vessels have been hauled out of the navy yard, and will depart on Thursday next. They take out with them a marble table, with a suitable inscription upon it, as a tribute to the Franklin expedition, which has been prepared by Mr Grinnell, at the request of Lady Franklin, and is to be erected on Beechy Island, by the side of that commemorating the fate of the gallant Lieut. Elliot.

The East India Squadron.—A Shanghai letter of March 9th has the following:

The United States steam frigate Powhatan, which arrived here a short time back, brings the American Japan treaty duly certified, in charge of Commander H. A. Adams, who proceeds overland to Washington by next mail. The Powhatan relieves the Vandalia, which goes to Hong Kong to recruit and refit.

Virginia Election. Richmond, Va., May 28—10 P. M. We have returns from 116 counties, officially, which gave Wise 10,781 majority. The 32 counties to be heard from gave Pierce 591 majority.

An Elephant's Affection. While a wagon drawn by several elephants was passing our office yesterday, the following story was told, which we vouch for as true.

Last season, a menagerie visited the village of Johnstown, Herkimer county. When the travel cade left town, it passed over a bridge which the road crossed leaving two elephants to bring up the rear. These were driven to the bridge, but with the known sagacity of the race, they refused to cross. The water of the creek, which flows through a gorge in the slate formation, meaning at that point banks of precipitous character and thirty feet in height, was low, and by taking a course across a corn field a ford could be reached. But the proprietor of the cornfield refused to allow his property to be so used, except on the payment of an exorbitant sum, and this, the agent refused to submit to. Accordingly, the elephants were again driven to the bridge, and again they refused to attempt the crossing. They would try the structure with their great feet, feeling cautiously along the plank with their proboscis fingers, but each time would recoil from making the dangerous experiment.

At last, however, goaded by the sharp iron instrument of the keeper, and accustomed to obedience, they dashed on, with a scream half of anger half of fear. The result showed the prudence of the poor animals to have been correct, the bridge broke, and on crashing to the bottom of the gorge, carrying with it both the unwilling beasts. One of them struck upon the trunk and shoulder, breaking the former and very badly injuring the latter, the other was strange enough unhurt. Now was shown the most singular and remarkable conduct on the part of the brute which had escaped. Half concealed there, an extempore bed being provided for its comfort, while no temptation to stray from was sufficient to induce the other to leave, and proceed with the main portion of the caravan, which finally went on, leaving the wounded beast and its companion under the charge of their keeper.

Day after day the suffering creature lay there, rapidly failing and unable to move. At the end of three weeks, the water in the creek commenced rising, and there was danger it would overflow and drown the disabled elephant. The keeper desired therefore, to get it up and make it walk as far as a barn, near by, where it would be out of danger, and would be better cared for. But it would not stir. He coaxed, shoulded and scolded but to no purpose. At last enraged, he seized a pitchfork, and was about plunging it into the poor thing's flesh, when the companion wrenched the fork from his hand, broke it in fragments, and flung the pieces from it, then with eyes glaring and every evidence of rage in its manner, it stood over its defenceless and wounded friend as if daring the keeper to approach, which the man was not so green as to do again with cruel purpose.

Thus the injured animal lay there until it died. When satisfied that it could no longer be of service, the other quietly followed the keeper away from the spot, and showed no desire to return.—If this was not reasoning, mingled with an affection some men might pattern after, we should like to know what to call it.—Buffalo Democracy.

Means of Living.—Corn is cheaper and more nutritious than wheat, and with proper care in the cooking, may be made equally palatable, even for a permanent article of food. Yet it is a fact that it is more used by the wealthy than by those who need to economize. There are other expenditures, such as tea, coffee and tobacco, which cost many poor families more than their flour and meat. But those articles are regarded as "necessary luxuries." It is say, if the secret were known, and cheap too, to keep these bodies of ours alive, and in health.—Boston Courier.

Lines in View of Death.

[The following very natural and affecting lines were composed by Mrs. C. E. Soper, wife of Mr John P. Soper, of Dixmont, while on her death bed, a little before her decease, which took place on the 28th March last, in the 27th year of her age. Mrs. S. was a native of Augusta.—Bond's Rural Home.]

The time will come, I cannot tell how soon,
When death's dark sleep shall o'er my senses steal,
Those limbs shall moulder in the silent tomb,
And the grim messenger these eyes shall seal.

Then months and years shall roll unheeded by,
And I, forgotten, in the grave shall sleep,
The tear of fond affection soon will dry;
The few who loved me soon forget to weep.

'Tis sad to think how long this head must lie!
That heart—how cold it will be throbbing o'er!—
To think its earthly home must die,
Its fairest earthly relative be no more.

I am not ready yet to leave this world,
And yet I cannot tell how soon I may;
My little bark its sails have just unfurled,
Has just begun to venture on its way;

And must I lie in cold, neglected grave,
By loving hearts forgotten sink to rest?
O, let me, shall oblivion's icy wave,
Through age roll over my unconscious breast?

There is a world beyond the cold, dark tomb;
O! could I feel my sins were all forgiven,
These thoughts no more would lend such withering gloom,
For then my hopes would all be fixed in Heaven.

General Canrobert had reviewed the entire French army, and assured them he should soon [illegible] either by the door or window. Important events have transpired of extended operation are being about to be commenced by the [illegible].

A fleet of 15,000 Turks, French and English embarked on board the available [illegible] of Sebastopol, and stood away in the direction of the Sea of Azof. They returned [illegible] or two, and so hastily disembarked.

The conflict on the night of the 24th between the Russians and the French was a desperate affair. The Russians attempted to dig [illegible] trenches, and the French partially prevented them.

Two hundred French were placed hors de combat. The French managed to push their [illegible] forward and mounted several [illegible].

The Russians made a sortie on the night of the 16th, but were immediately repulsed with great [illegible].

A short truce was given on the evening of the 16th, to allow the Russians to bury their killed in front of their advances.

Gortschakoff telegraphs that the Allies, on the 6th, were occupied in augmenting their batteries and reinforcing their approaches against the central bastions.

His Lordship opened the debate with a bitter speech against the ministry, and with an exposition of the formidable power being wielded by public opinion, and a denunciation of appointments being made by favor instead of merit.

Lord Derby and others continued the debate, when upon the division there were 71 for the resolutions and 161 against them.

The Universal Exposition was opened with much ceremony, although the arrangements were anything but complete. The Emperor and Empress were present, with all the great officers of State, and some 5000 persons. The Emperor delivered an appropriate speech.

Pianori, the wretch in attempt on the life of the Emperor, was executed in the prison of Roquette. He admitted his guilt, but would make no disclosures—exclaiming "Vive la République!" just as the knife fell.

An extraordinary story was rumored in the faubourg—that the attempt on the Emperor was a sham, and that the real Pianori was a Police agent, who was sent out of the country, and a figure executed in his stead.

DR. J. H. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,

THIS preparation of this medicine was himself remarkable, reduced so low as to be given up by his physicians and friends, in the last stage of Consumption. When all hopes of his getting well had fled, he was strongly recommended to use a Syrup made from an old Indian receipt, which was credited in literally curing him. The family physician and a large number of respectable gentlemen certified to the facts of this case, and when the Pulmonic Syrup obtained a reputation never equalled in this section of the country. Crowds as this received, a month to the day only, of a miracle, Dr. Schenck was stricken down in my sanctum, affiliated, to whom he almost entrusted the Syrup with the same Real results. Indeed, so high was the authority of this medicine that continually are heard their attention drawn towards the unusual portion of it. Thus having selfcured its curative powers and freely extended the hand of fellowship and encouragement to Dr. Schenck and did subscribe the medicine to the public, and to the medical profession.

No other medicine operates upon the system in the manner that the Pulmonic Syrup does. It produces a healthy action upon the morbid parts, by purifying the blood, and, it promotes the expectoration of all those matters from the lungs, and other parts, that are diseased. It heals the open ulcers, and the tubercles and other specific causes, the lungs, to some summit and reserve the cough, and other natural functions, and also soothing the irritated portion of the lungs and other parts. And thus restores these parts to health. A single trial will prove the medicine possesses over all others, that it contains no opium, or any other hazardous ingredient whatever.

In 1843 Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup was introduced into New Jersey, to Philadelphia, and commenced its practice in this profession where the same was used, a great deal, cured by many, in curing a disease of that kind, hereto for so long considered incurable, and let this since that time, by several, to the world in public, and in private, and has cured.

Both of his principal diseases, with Consumption, which appears to have been in hereditary disease with his father's family. All his brothers and sisters except one, died of this disease, one of them, but the eldest brother, reaching the age of twenty.

Elizabeth Hart, Philadelphia, mother, a man, died of consumption, as one of her mother's sisters, at the age of twenty, died of the same disease.

VOLUNTARY TESTIMONY.

We, the undersigned, residents of Flemington, do hereby certify, that we are well acquainted with Dr. J. H. Schenck. He was attacked by disease, which was believed, to be Pulmonary Consumption, in the opinion of which he was induced to go to Boston, where he had the advantage of the best medical advice, and all opinions were against a cure. He is now perfectly well—his cough and fever have left him, and we feel satisfied in declaring it as our belief, that these salutary effects have resulted from the use of the Pulmonic Syrup.

IMPORTANT PROCLAMATION!

A Great Mystery Explained.

In the year of our Lord 1847, in our capacities of practical chemists, we discovered that by mixing certain specified agents which had never before been known in medicine, wonderful properties possessed, such as marvelous quick power over pain, that the moment it was applied to the parts affected with pain, all uneasiness ceased. The moment it touched the pain, it was driven as instantly, and the most violent scalds and irritation were so thick and the most so instantly relieved to perfect ease in a few minutes.

In 1849 we introduced this Remedy to the world under the name of

RADWAYS READY RELIEF.

It has been used by hundreds of thousands throughout the United States, giving instantaneous relief to all afflicted with Pain or Sickness.

On application externally, or a few drops taken internally, will instantly relieve the sufferer from the most violent and terrible cries, and restore the weak feeble, and prostrated frame to strength and vigor.

No person has ever used RADWAYS READY RELIEF, RR without receiving some good, but in 10 to 15 minutes after use, almost.

To those who are now suffering any severe pain, give it a trial, for in five minutes they will enjoy ease and comfort.

RADWAYS RELIEF IS A CURE

was tried and is the only remedy ever discovered that will stop the most excruciating pains in a few seconds, and free the system from Rheumatism, Sciatica, Sciatica, and Neuralgia. Disorders in a few hours. It will cure and prove the system against sudden attacks of

CHOLERA,	DYSENTERY,
DIARRHOEA,	CHOLERA MORBUS,
SICK HEADACHE,	TOOTH AND EAR ACHE,
PALPITATION,	INFLUENZA.

Be it in mind, it is a powerful Diaphoretic and, diffuses stimulant, nervine, anti-spasmodic, and anti-febrifugal.

THE R. R. REMEDIES are unrivaled discoveries of the 19th century. They are prepared in a chemical and original manner, to stop pain in a minute and protect the human system against sickness and sudden attacks. The doses required to cut down are small. A few drops of RADWAYS RELIEF exercise a powerful influence upon the system.

IT HAS CURED

Rheumatism in one hour,
Sciatica in one hour,
Cramp in from minutes,
Diarrhoea in five minutes,
Toothache in one second,
Spasms in five minutes,
Sick Headache in fifteen minutes,
Chill Fever in fifteen minutes,
Chilblains in three minutes,
Sore Throat in four minutes,
Influenza in one hour.

SPINAL COMPLAINTS, Stiff Joints, Coldness, Weakness, Frost Bites, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Tic Doloureux, and all other complaints where there are severe pains, RADWAYS RELIEF will instantly stop the pain, and quickly cure the disease.

CATHARTIC PILLS

OPERATE by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and regulate it into healthy action. They remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, and, by restoring their irregular action to health, correct, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first causes of disease. An extensive trial of their virtues, by Professors in Physicians, and Patients, has shown cures of such a nature as to forbid the suspicion of untruth. These certificates are published in my American Almanac, which the Agents below named are pleased to furnish free to all inquiring.

Authenticated cure Directions for those who are the complaints which they have been found to cure.

FOR COSTIVENESS—Take one or two Pills, or such quantity as to gently move the bowels. Costiveness is frequently the aggravating cause of Pleurisy and the cure of one complaint is the cure of both. No person can feel well while under the restraint of body. Hence it should be, and it can be, promptly relieved.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, which is sometimes the cause of Costiveness, and always uncomfortable, take mild doses—from one to four—to stimulate the stomach and bring into healthy action. They will do it, and the headache, heartburn, and confusion of dyspepsia will rapidly disappear. When it has gone, don't forget what cured you.

FOR A LONG STOMACH, or Morbid Appetite and Bowels, which produces general depression of the spirits and bad health, take from four to eight Pills at first, and smaller doses afterwards, until activity and strength are restored to the system.

FOR NEUROSISNESS, SICK HEADACHE, NAUSEA, Pain in the Stomach, Back or Side, take from four to eight pills on going to bed. If they do not operate sufficiently, take more the next day until they do. These complaints will be swept out of the system. Don't wear these and their kindred disorders become your stomach's friend.

FOR SCROFULA, DYSPEPSIA, and all Diseases of the Skin, take the Pills freely and frequently, to keep the bowels open. The eruptions will generally soon begin to diminish and disappear. Many dreadful ulcers and sores have been healed up by their purifying and purifying effect of these Pills, and some disgusting diseases which seemed to saturate the whole system have completely yielded to their influence, leaving the sufferer in perfect health. Patients! your duty to society forbids that you should pursue yourself around the world covered with pimples, blotches, ulcers, sores, and all or any of the various diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing.

TO PURIFY THE BLOOD, they are the best medicine ever discovered. They should be taken freely and frequently, and the impurities which now the seeds of miserable diseases will be swept out of the system like chaff before the wind. By this property they do as much good in preventing sickness as by the remarkable cures which they are making every where.

LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, and all Bilious Affections arise from some derangement—either torpidity, congestion, or obstructions of the liver. Torpidity and congestion retain the bile and render it unfit for digestion. This is dangerous to the health, and the constitution is frequently undermined by no other cause. Indigestion is the symptom. Obstruction of the duct which empties the bile into the stomach causes the bile to overflow into the blood. This produces Jaundice, with a long and dangerous train of evils. Costiveness, or alternately costiveness and diarrhoea, prevails. Feverish symptoms, languor, low spirits, weariness, restlessness, and melancholy, with sometimes inability to sleep, and sometimes great drowsiness, sometimes there is severe pain in the side; the skin and the white of the eyes become a greenish yellow; the stomach acid, the bowels sore to the touch; the whole system irritable, with a tendency to fever, which may turn to bilious fever, bilious colic, bilious diarrhoea, dysentery, &c. A medium dose of three or four Pills taken at night, followed by two or three in the morning, and repeated a few days, will remove the cause of all these troubles. It has worked to suffer such pains when you can cure them for 25 cents.

RHEUMATISM, GOUT, and all Inflammatory Fevers are rapidly cured by the purifying effects of these Pills upon the blood and the stimulus which they afford to the vital principle of Life. For these and all kindred complaints they should be taken in mild doses, to move the bowels gently, but freely.

As a DINNER PILL, this is both agreeable and useful. No Pill can be made more pleasant to take, and certainly none has been made more effectual to the purpose for which a dinner pill is employed.

TESTIMONY FROM MAINE.

Rev. C. Daniel Elliott, of Brooklin, Maine, July 16, 1853, says: "I was taken sick one year ago last April, upon my passage from Havana to Charleston, S. C. At the latter place I took medicine and procured a physician, but for ten days could obtain no relief, no sleep or appetite. At last I took your advertisement of Hoofland's German Bitters, and I saw a change immediately. This was about 10 o'clock, at 11 o'clock I took the first dose, and another at 6 o'clock. The effect was so rapid on me that I had a good appetite for supper, and rested well that night, and the next day found me a well man. I have not hesitated to recommend the Bitters, being in the habit of using them in my own family, and have always found them to be what they are represented to be, a valuable medicine."
